

Level of implementation of food environment policies and infrastructure support by the Irish Government

		Level of Implementation
Food	Food composition targets processed foods
Composition Food	Food composition targets out-of-home meals
	Front-of-pack labelling
Labelling Food Promotion	Menu board labelling
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (broadcast media)
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (social media)
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (non-broadcast media)
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion where children gather
Food Prices	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children on packaging
	Reducing taxes on healthy foods
	Increasing taxes on unhealthy foods
	Food subsidies to favour healthy foods
	Food-related income-support for healthy foods
	Policies in schools promote healthy food choices
	Policies in public sector settings promote healthy food choices
od Provision	Healthy public procurement standards
	Support and training systems (public sector)
Food Retail	Support and training systems (private sector)
	Zoning laws limit unhealthy food outlets
	Zoning laws encourage healthy food outlets
	Promote relative availability of healthy foods in-store
	Promote relative availability of healthy foods in food service outlets
	Strong visible political support
Leadership	Clear population intake targets
	Food-based dietary guidelines
	Comprehensive implementation plan for nutrition
	Priorities for reducing health inequalities
	Restricting commercial influence on policy development
Governance	Use of evidence in food policies
	Transparency in development of food policies
Monitoring & Intelligence	Public access to nutrition information
	Monitoring food environments
	Monitoring nutrition status and intakes
	Monitoring overweight and obesity
	Monitoring NCD risk factors and prevalence
	Evaluation of programmes & policies
Funding &	Monitoring progress towards reducing health inequalities
	Funding obesity and NCDs prevention research
Resources Platforms for Interaction	Statutory health promotion agency
	Co-ordination (between local and national government)
	Platforms between government and food sector
	Platforms between government and civil society
	Systems-based approach with local & national organisations
Health in all	Assessing public health impacts of food policies
A CONTRACTOR DE LA RECEILA

Policies For Tackling Obesity and Creating Healthier Food Environments in Ireland: Food-EPI 2020