

Level of implementation of food environment policies and their impact on Socio-economic Inequalities

Level of Implementation & Socio-economic Inequalities

Policy Category	Policy Description	Level of Implementation	Impact on Socio-economic Inequalities
Food Composition	Food composition targets processed foods	High	Small Reduction
	Food composition targets out-of-home meals	Medium	Small Reduction
Food Labelling	Front-of-pack labelling	High	No Impact
	Menu board labelling	High	Small Reduction
Food Promotion	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (broadcast media)	Medium	Small Reduction
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (social media)	High	Small Reduction
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children (non-broadcast media)	High	Small Reduction
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion where children gather	Medium	Small Reduction
	Restricting unhealthy food promotion to children on packaging	Medium	Small Reduction
Food Prices	Reducing taxes on healthy foods	Medium	Small Reduction
	Increasing taxes on unhealthy foods	Medium	Small Reduction
	Food subsidies to favour healthy foods	Medium	Small Reduction
	Food-related income-support for healthy foods	High	Small Reduction
Food Provision	Policies in schools promote healthy food choices	Medium	Small Reduction
	Policies in public sector settings promote healthy food choices	Medium	Small Reduction
	Healthy Public procurement standards	Medium	Small Reduction
	Support and training systems (public sector)	Medium	Small Reduction
	Support and training systems (private companies)	High	Small Reduction
Food Retail	Zoning laws limit unhealthy food outlets	High	Small Reduction
	Zoning laws encourages healthy food outlets	Medium	Small Reduction
	Promote relative availability of healthy foods in-store	High	Small Reduction
	Promote relative availability of healthy foods in food service outlets	High	Small Reduction

Policy Indicators

Small Reduction

High

Considerable Reduction

Medium

Low

No Impact

None/Very Little

